

Join the world's best inspectors.

Members of InterNACHI adhere to strict membership and Continuing Education requirements. Other associations have little or no entrance requirements and encourage their unqualified members to perform hundreds of inspections.

InterNACHI members are highly trained and receive support, education and training throughout their careers so that they can give their clients the outstanding professional service they deserve.

As a member of InterNACHI, you'll have access to hundreds of free benefits, as well as free online education that is self-paced and reflects the latest best practices in the home inspection industry.
