RE: InterNACHI Offer to Assume Administrative Duties for ASHI

Members of the Board of Directors:

I am the General Counsel for the International Association of Certified Home Inspectors (InterNACHI). Like ASHI, InterNACHI is a nonprofit corporation with tax-exempt status as a trade association under Section 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code. With more than 16,000 members, InterNACHI is the largest trade association for home inspectors in the world.

The purpose of this letter is to present InterNACHI's offer to assume administrative responsibilities for ASHI. InterNACHI will bring in InterNACHI staffers and systems to manage and grow ASHI for you. Because InterNACHI feels the industry and consumers will benefit if InterNACHI helps grow ASHI, InterNACHI will do this free of charge. InterNACHI would, of course, remain subject to the direction of ASHI's Board of Directors.

InterNACHI won't be able to give ASHI members access to all the benefits InterNACHI members receive (www.nachi.org/benefits.htm), but will give ASHI members access to all of InterNACHI's online approved courses (www.nachi.org/education), webinars, training videos, podcasts, articles, and downloadable course materials.

If ASHI wants to explore this further, we would welcome the chance to meet with ASHI's representatives. We look forward to your response.

Sincerely

Mark Cohen
